25X1 4. [] Saw Miss Sill, staff member in Congressman Frank Chelf's office, in the absence of the Congressman and invited the Congressman to breakfast at the Agency on 19 August. Later in the day Miss Sill called and advised that the Congressman regretted that he could not attend breakfast because of the press of Committee and Congressional business but that he may be free in two or three weeks.

25X1 5. [] Advised Mr. Frank McNamara, Staff Director, HCUA, that the Agency had no interest in [] about whom he had inquired previously. Mr. McNamara was advised that it appeared unlikely that [] would come to the United States. 25X1

25X1 7. [] Congressman Glenard Lipscomb telephoned wanting some unclassified information on two items: (1) the background on sources and utilization of copper scrap in Yugoslavia; and (2) analysis of the military status of Cuba. These items have been referred to DD/I for action.
